

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

Can you complete 5 in a row? (up, down, or diagonally) Take it to the next level and complete an X, T, or H pattern. You might be a reading ninja if you can cover them all!! Bring your completed challenge back to school in August and we'll hang it up to celebrate! Have fun and happy reading!

READ...

outside	to a family member	a nonfiction book	out loud like your teacher or librarian would	a book about friends one of your favorites..... again!	something funny	food labels	a book from a different genre than the last one you read	a book with blue on the cover on a Monday	while it's raining	in bed	a book set in a far-away place	then illustrate a scene and share it with someone in your house then summarize what you read to someone in your house	an ebook	how-to directions you created to someone in your home	at night	a map
a book that has an animal or creature as a main character	listen to someone else read to you	after playing outside	then write down and look up a word you didn't know before	for 20 minutes every day for one week straight
